EHF EURO 2010 NEWSLETTER

EHF EURO 2010: get, set, go!

The teams are getting ready for the start of the EHF EURO 2010 in Austria. Tactical "fine-tuning" with friendly matches are in the programme of the best 16 European teams for this week.

The four Preliminary Round venues – Linz, Graz, Innsbruck and Wiener Neustadt – are also waiting for the action. The organisers promise Magic Moments for the teams and fans in Austria.

Supporters who will make their way to the heart of Europe or wish to follow the games on TV from the comfort of the armchair can count back until the start on Tuesday, 19 January 2010, at 18:00hrs. The title holder Denmark will throw off the tournament against the host Austria in Linz.

Handball is in the air: spectacular landing for the EURO

Russian team built on one-club foundation

One of those is 27 year-old wing player Timur Dibirov. ehf-euro.com hooked up with him for a talk before the start of the EHF EURO 2010.

Iceland wary of high expectations

As the architect of Iceland's proudest moment in sport, national coach Gudmundur Gudmundsson, in his second stint, has become a reluctant national hero.

Fine-tuning for Hungary

"I'll take only fully-fit players that are in top condition to the Euro," says coach Csoknyai.

Austria must raise performance levels

Lino Cervar praises the hosts: "Austria is a good team with quality players... Extremely difficult for everyone."
