2005 EHF Workshop: Summer Camp

EHF Workshop: 11 – 14 August 05, Kronberg / GER on occasion of an German Summer Camp

Dear Sport Friends,

Besides the 1st EHF Workshop on Summer Camps which will be held 26 June – 1 July in Nyborg / DEN, the EHF would like to give more participants the chance to attend the EHF workshops by organising a 2nd workshop in Kronberg / GER.

The EHF is convinced that the future of our sport lies in the hands of our Handball youngsters.

In order to popularise Handball especially in the younger age categories Summer Camps focused on handball and offering adequate games combined with fun, life time sport activities and education concerning fair play, ethics and moral in sport and social life have been established in various European countries.

To spread this idea of a Handball adventure camp the EHF would like to invite the European Member Federations to participate in the EHF Workshop on Summer Camps to get a look backstage. The course will be a combination of participating in the origin Summer Camps and special lecturers (Topics: EHF activities, Young Coaches', Fair Play Initiatives) held by representatives of the EHF and the organiser.

Therefore the EHF opens up the field of potential participants by inviting interested representatives of the National Federations.

We would like to provide you with the first information on the 2005 EHF Workshop: Summer Camp to be held in Germany:
